AUTISM FRIENDLY SCREENINGS EVERY MONTH

Sensory friendly screenings for people with autism and people with learning disabilities every month at more than 95 ODEON cinemas in the UK and Ireland.

Autism Friendly Screenings are brought to you by learning disability and autism support provider, Dimensions and cinema group ODEON in a joint campaign to improve people's access to the cinema.

For the latest news on Autism Friendly Screenings and participating cinemas please visit www.dimensions-uk.org/autismfriendly.

Cinema tickets can be purchased as normal from the cinema box office or online via the ODEON website www.odeon.co.uk or through the accessibility helpline on 0800 138 3315 between 10am and 5pm. Tickets are available to purchase from 5pm Tuesday 14 June.

- ➡ Lights are left on low and the volume is turned down
- ➡ There are no trailers before the film
- ➡ People can move around the cinema and make noise as they feel comfortable
- ➡ People can bring their own food and drink
- ➡ People with autism and people with sensory differences can attend the cinema with their friends, siblings and other family members in an inclusive environment
- ➡ Support workers / carers can attend for free with a CEA Card.

The next screening will be Thomas and Friends:
The Great Race on Sunday 19 June at 11.30am.
