Dear Parents/Carers

Please find details below of a forthcoming event which we thought you might find of interest.

Disability Hate Crime Awareness Day

Wednesday 14th October, 10.30am-2.30pm

Drill Hall, Horsham

Horsham's self-advocacy group, People Come First - a group for and run by adults with learning disabilities have teamed up with Horsham district council and are holding a disability hate crime awareness day on Wednesday 14th October, from 10.30am - 2.30pm at Drill Hall, Horsham.

The informative day, which falls during national hate crime awareness week (10th - 17th October), will include speakers from the police, victim support and local transport services. It will give the public the opportunity to learn about disability hate crime; different safety campaigns, as well as encouraging victims of a hate crime to report it to the authorities.

Worthing's self-advocacy group, Speakabout will share their views and experiences of hate crime and there will also be a performance by Sunny Arts, a social development and human rights drama company. Come along to get involved and support national hate crime awareness week.

More details are available by contacting Ellie Bebb, of Impact Advocacy on 07920234605.

With regards
